

How to pay the examination fee?

A: Applicants living in Japan

We will only accept 30,000 yen postal money orders. Please do not write on or sign the money order, and be sure to submit it together with your application documents.

Japanese government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarship Students are exempt from the examination fee.

MEXT Scholarship Students enrolled at other universities, must submit a certificate stating their status as MEXT Scholarship Students.

B: Applicants living outside Japan

Overseas applicants must pay the 30,000 yen examination fee via foreign remittance in yen according to the details specified in the table below. In addition to the foreign remittance fee, overseas applicants may be required to pay bank charges to the local remitting bank, depending on the bank's policy regarding international money transfers in yen. Overseas applicants should consult with their local bank to verify that the amount credited to NAIIST's Nanto bank account (see below) is 30,000 yen, and no less. Overseas applicants must also submit a copy of the receipt of foreign remittance issued by the local remitting bank, or some other evidence of such bank transfer, together with the required application documents listed in 3.(5). Overseas applicants should keep the original receipt for their own records.
