

Campus Members of Nara National Museum and Kyoto National Museum

Campus Members:

■The Campus Members System aims to provide students with the opportunity and facilities to study culture and history through the sharing of the museums collections of cultural assets by cooperative system between national museums and universities.

■By showing NAIST student ID cards, students can receive the following benefits.

■Eligible Students: Master and Doctoral Students, Special Auditing Students, Special Research Students, Non-degree Student, Research Students

1. Students can enter the regular exhibitions and special displays for free repeatedly.

・ By showing NAIST student ID cards, students can enter the regular exhibitions and special displays in Nara National Museum and Kyoto National Museum for free repeatedly.

・ Faculty members and administrative staff who accompany students to the museum such as a seminar activity can also enter free of charge by showing ID cards.

※Works or Arts at the regular exhibitions change regularly. Special Exhibitions are also held seasonally.

2. Discount on the use of facilities.

・ Discount rate applies to the auditorium, conference room, and tea room in the museum.

3. Students can be given the special discounts on the special exhibitions by showing student ID.

Nara National Museum : ¥400

Kyoto National Museum : Free

※Group entrance fee (General Discount) is applied to the faculty members and administrative staff who accompany students.

(One of the faculty members and administrative staff accompanying 20 students and more will be admitted free of charge.)

*For details, please see the following URL:

Nara National Museum (<http://www.narahaku.go.jp>)

Kyoto National Museum (http://www.kyohaku.go.jp/jp/index_top.html)

【Contact】

Education Planning Section

Student Affairs Division, Nara Institute of Science and Technology

TEL : (0743) 72-6247

FAX : (0743) 72-5014

E-mail : gakukyo@ad.naist.jp