

Campus Members of Nara National Museum and Kyoto National Museum

What is the Campus Members System?

- The Campus Members System aims to provide students with opportunities to study culture and history through the museums' collections of cultural assets by collaboration between national museums and universities.
- By showing NAIST staff ID cards, staff and students can receive the benefits from the museums.
- Eligible Students: Master and Doctoral Students, Special Auditing Students, Special Research Students, Undergraduate Internship Student Non-degree Student, and Research Students

1. Free visit to the regular exhibitions and special displays

- By showing NAIST staff ID cards, staff and students can enter the regular exhibitions and the special displays at Nara National Museum and Kyoto National Museum for free of charge as many time as you wish.
- ※ Pieces for the regular exhibitions will change regularly and the seasonal pieces will be exhibited for the special displays according to the seasons.

2. Discount on the use of other facilities.

- Discount rate will be applied to use the facilities such as an auditorium, a conference room, and a tea room.

3. Special discount on the special exhibitions

- By showing NAIST staff ID cards, staff and students can receive special discount for the admission fee to enter the special exhibitions
- ※ Admission fees for the special exhibitions will be decided according to each exhibition and please check the amounts on their websites.

Please access to the museums' websites for any more details.

Nara National Museum (<http://www.narahaku.go.jp>)

Kyoto National Museum (http://www.kyohaku.go.jp/jp/index_top.html)

【Contact】

Education Planning Section

TEL : (0743) 72-6247

E-mail : gakukyo@ad.naist.jp