

• The list of errata

(the guideline of 2021 spring admission 3rd entrance examination and 2021 fall admission 1st entrance examination (online interview))

Page	section	incorrect	correct
1	1 . Admission Capacity.		* Admission capacity may be adjusted and may include a number of students who enter in the fall term.
1	2 . Qualifications for Application	[note] *1. “Designated courses” for qualification (9): In principle, this refers to the number of credits required for graduation that will be completed by the end of applicant’s junior year in their current department (credits for general education such as humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, foreign languages, and health and physical education, and credits for specialized courses). Those who are enrolled at NAIST based on this qualification are regarded as being withdrawn from their current university register, and will not be eligible to take the national examinations that specify graduation from a university as a prerequisite. *2. Applicants who wish to apply based on qualification (9) or (10) should follow the procedures given in Article 7: Preliminary Screening of Applicant Suitability (for applicants who meet qualification (9) and (10)) on page 9 before taking the entrance examination.	[note] *1. The date for applicants for Fall Admission is September 30, 2021, specified in the “Qualifications for Application(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) above. *2. “Designated courses” for qualification (9): In principle, this refers to the number of credits required for graduation that will be completed by the end of applicant’s junior year in their current department (credits for general education such as humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, foreign languages, and health and physical education, and credits for specialized courses). Those who are enrolled at NAIST based on this qualification are regarded as being withdrawn from their current university register, and will not be eligible to take the national examinations that specify graduation from a university as a prerequisite. *3. Applicants who wish to apply based on qualification (9) or (10) should follow the procedures given in Article 7: Preliminary Screening of Applicant Suitability (for applicants who meet qualification (9) and (10)) on page 9 before taking the entrance examination.

8	5 . Examination Results and Enrollment Procedures	* Applicants who meet qualification (9) Applicants who pass the examination but who meet qualification (9) and are therefore required to complete the necessary credits with excellent results by the end of the junior year will be regarded as “provisional passers” of the examination on the date of the examination results announcement. “ Provisional passers” are required to submit transcripts which cover their first three years of undergraduate studies by 4:00 pm on March 15 (Mon), 2021. If the transcripts meet the stipulated conditions, those students are officially regarded on March 17 (Wed), 2021 as successful applicants. In this case, the enrollment procedure period is in late March, 2021.	* Applicants who meet qualification (9) Applicants who pass the examination but who meet qualification (9) and are therefore required to complete the necessary credits with excellent results by the end of the junior year will be regarded as “provisional passers” of the examination on the date of the examination results announcement. “ Provisional passers” are required to submit transcripts which cover their first three years of undergraduate studies by 4:00 pm on March 15 (Mon), 2021. If the transcripts meet the stipulated conditions, those students are officially regarded on March 17 (Wed), 2021 as successful applicants. In this case, the enrollment procedure period is in late March, 2021. If Applicants for Fall admission cannot submit transcripts which cover their first three years of undergraduate studies by 4:00 pm on March 15 (Mon), 2021, submit transcripts which cover their first three years of undergraduate studies by the middle September, 2021. Those students are officially regarded as successful applicants in middle of September, 2021 as successful applicants.
---	---	--	---