

To Library users:

Inter Library Loan service (partly restart)

NAIST library restarts Inter Library Loan service for public fee.

The service for private payment will restart after opening the library.

Photocopies will be delivered to the each laboratory postbox as usual.

If you stay home, NAIST library will send photocopies to your home while library is closed.

Please write the address in the memo field of order form.

Borrowing books are NOT send to your home.

The library will contact you individually.

The books borrowed from other libraries should not be returned using the book post.

The order for the request to Nara Pref. library and information center will be suspended until NAIST library is opened.

Please note the borrowing books and copy services are delayed or canceled due to contraction or closure of other libraries.

There are no differences between regular and express delivery.
