NAIST Education Policy

● Objectives

As a graduate institution without undergraduate courses, NAIST promotes cutting-edge research and offers a sophisticated outcome-based education for each student so as to contribute to the advancement of science and technology and of society as a whole.

● Educational mission

NAIST was founded in October 1991 as a graduate institution which educates individuals who will contribute to the development of advanced science and technology. Research and education at NAIST cover the three core areas: information science, biological science and materials science.

In order to realize a suitable standard of living for people throughout the world in the 21st century, and indeed to secure our very survival, the coming generation of leading researchers must possess the highest scientific and technical competence, along with a clear grounding in professional ethics. At NAIST, we aim to cultivate such researchers and educators.

Therefore, in addition to the areas of information science, biological science and materials science, we actively encourage interdisciplinary research and provide educational training in the principles of ethics and intellectual property.

● Objectives for student development

Education and research in NAIST master's course cultivate sophisticated expertise and personal initiative to support society and the economy. The doctoral courses are designed to nurture students to become researchers and engineers with the drive to seek new frontiers in science and technology and to take on leading roles internationally.

● Educational policy

In addition to a specialized education, the wide-ranging curriculum cultivates ethical thinking, vision, theoretical thinking, comprehensive judgment and sharpened writing skills.

Educational programs to produce human resources who will pursue new interdisciplinary research fields are executed and those to produce human resources with a thorough, globally-focused understanding, which include collaborative programs with our overseas education and research partners, are offered.

Internal and external evaluations are implemented to continuously improve the quality of education, while enrichment of the education and research environments and the financial support for talented students are being promoted.

NAIST Admission Policy

● Prospective students

We are looking for students, researchers or engineers who have fundamental academic skills, a clear vision, a resolve toward the future, and a strong interest in and motivation for advanced science and technology, regardless of their background or undergraduate major. Especially, we actively accept applicants who have the ability to reason logically and accurately express their thoughts, and those who are very inquisitive and have the ability to tackle challenges.

● Basic admissions policy

In order to select outstanding persons with the above qualifications both domestically and abroad, we stress assessment of applicants' character and capability. There are various routes for admission, including examinations centered upon interviews as well as examinations based on recommendations.

1. Admission Capacity

Unit of Admission	Admission Capacity	Field of Study
Division of Science and Technology	Limited	Information Science
		Biological Science
		Materials Science

*Applicant cannot apply to multiple fields of study within the same admission process.

* Admission capacity includes students who will enter the Advanced Information Specialist Course.

2. Eligibility for Application

- (1) Those who have graduated or will graduate from universities in Japan, as stipulated in Article 83-1 of the School Education Act, by September 30, 2026.
- (2) Those who hold, or will be conferred, a bachelor's degree by the National Institution for Academic Degrees and Quality Enhancement of Higher Education (Japan) by September 30, 2026, in accordance with Article 104-7 of the School Education Act.
- (3) Those who have completed, or will complete, a 16-year curriculum of school education in foreign countries by September 30, 2026.
- (4) Those who have completed, or will complete, a 16-year curriculum of foreign school education by taking a foreign school's correspondence course in Japan by September 30, 2026.
- (5) Those who have completed, or will complete, a 16-year curriculum by September 30, 2026 at a foreign educational institution in Japan that is authorized by the educational system of the foreign country and is specified or designated separately by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT).
- (6) Those who hold, or will be conferred, the equivalent of a bachelor's degree by September 30, 2026 by completing a course of 3 years or more at a foreign university or other foreign educational institution. This includes cases where the course is completed by taking a foreign school's correspondence course, or at a foreign educational institution in Japan that is authorized by the educational system of the respective foreign country and is specified or designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT). Eligible institutions are limited to those whose educational and research activities have been evaluated by an agency accredited by the respective foreign government or relevant organization, or those specified separately by the MEXT.
- (7) Those who have completed, or will complete by September 30, 2026, specialized courses at a vocational school specified by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT), where the course period is 4 years or longer and meets the criteria specified by the MEXT.
- (8) Those who are deemed eligible or will be deemed eligible by September 30, 2026 by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) (Bulletin No.5, Ministry of Education, 1953).
- (9) Those who, by September 30, 2026, will have been enrolled in a university for 3 years or longer or who will have completed a 15-year curriculum as described in (3), (4) or (5) with an excellent educational record in the designated courses. (*1., *2.)
- (10) Those who are recognized by NAIST through Preliminary Screening of Applicant Suitability to have an academic ability equivalent to a bachelor's degree and who will be 22 years of age by September 30, 2026. (*2.)

*1. "Designated Courses" for Eligibility for Application (9): In principle, this refers to the number of credits required for graduation that will be completed by the end of the applicant's third year in their current department. These include credits for general education subjects (such as humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, foreign languages, and health and physical education) as well as credits for specialized courses. Those who enrolled at NAIST under this eligibility will be regarded as having withdrawn from the student register of their current university, and will not be eligible to take the national examinations that require graduation from a university as a prerequisite.

*2. Applicants who wish to apply based on Eligibility for Application (9) or (10) should follow the procedures given in Article 10: Preliminary Screening of Applicant Suitability (for applicants who meet eligibility requirements (9) and (10)) on page 11 before taking the entrance examination.

(4) Eligibility Screening Result

The results of the eligibility screening will be sent by e-mail to the address used to request the forms required for the application, by the end of the application period.

11. Long-Term Completion System

The Long-Term Completion System is designed for students who have difficulty completing their graduate courses within the standard allotted period due to employment or other circumstances. This System allows students to extend their study plan beyond the standard period, enabling them to complete their courses in a planned and flexible manner. If approved by the university, students may remain enrolled beyond two years while paying tuition equivalent to two years.

The annual tuition fee is calculated by dividing the total fee for two years by the number of years approved for the extended study period. However, if there is a tuition fee revision during enrollment, the revised fee will apply from the time of the revision.

Applicants wishing to avail themselves of this system are advised to consult with the Academic Affairs Section.
